Donna Wilson Named to 2011 List of Maryland's Top 100 Women

(TOWSON, Md.) — Donna Wilson, IWIF Senior Vice President of Communications and Strategic Management has been named to The Daily Record's 2011 list of Maryland's Top 100 Women.

The Daily Record's annual list of Maryland's Top 100 Women was created to recognize outstanding achievement by women as demonstrated through professional accomplishment, community leadership, and mentoring.

Since 1996, The Daily Record has recognized more than 900 high-achieving Maryland women who are making an impact in the state.

“As Maryland's Top 100 Women celebrates its 16th anniversary, all of us at The Daily Record continue to be proud and honored to be a part of this important event,” says Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, Publisher of The Daily Record. “We commend all of our past winners and are proud to recognize our Top 100 Women of 2011.”

This year, The Daily Record received 450 nominations, which are solicited from economic development agencies, women's organizations, chambers of commerce, and the business community at large.

Nominees are asked to complete an application outlining educational and career history, professional and community involvement, corporate and nonprofit board memberships, and mentoring experience. They also are encouraged to submit one letter of recommendation from someone who can speak to their accomplishments professionally, in the community, and through mentoring.

A panel of judges comprised of business professionals and past Top 100 Women winners from across Maryland review all of the applications submitted, narrowing the list to select the Top 100 Women. This year, 53 women are first time winners of the award.
